Duty to Warn

Confidentiality and privileged communication remain rights of all participants according to state law. However, if an individual intends to take harmful, dangerous, or criminal action against another human being, or against themselves, it is the duty of church leadership to warn appropriate individuals of such intentions. Suspected acts of child abuse or neglect are required to be reported. Those warned may include but are not limited to:

- The person or family of the person who is likely to suffer the results of harmful behavior;
- The family of the participant who intends to harm himself/herself or someone else;
- Associates or friends of those threatened or making threats;
- Law enforcement officials.

Before informing anyone who should be warned, church leadership will take steps to first share that intention with the participant.

Living Waters Agreement

I, the undersigned, am applying for the Living Waters program sponsored through Harbor Church, and understand that this program does not take the place of professional counseling and/or therapy of any kind that I may be receiving now, or have received in the past, or plan to obtain in the future.

I understand the nature of the Living Waters program and release Harbor Church of any liability.
